ARLINGTON TO BECOME SCENIC BEAUTY SPOT

CWA Workers to Make Entire Town One Large Park

If the residents of Arlington Heights do their part next spring and summer, Arlington Heights will be the most attractive town from a scenic standpoint, northwest of Chicago. Under the direction of the Park Board a full corps of CWA workers are laying the ground work and with the completion of the several projects, the municipality will be ready for the March winds, April showers and May sunshine next spring that will transform the town into a village of parks.

The general park improvement centers around the newly named, Sargeant Square, comprising six acres on each side of the North Western railroad in the center of the business district. Kenneth Bangs, landscape expert, who is now engaged in the directing of CWA work at Waukegan, Wis., prepared, without charge a profile and plan for park beautification that will transform the old railroad parks into scenic spots that will excite the envy and wonder of the people of neighboring towns.

First Pay Checks Arrive
The first pay checks to be received by the local workers arrived by mail in Arlington Heights Tuesday. They totaled nearly a thousand dollars and a large part of that amount was soon being handed out by local business men in exchange for accounts and current bills. A number of stories reaching the Herald office tell of the honesty of the workers. In two instances, coming to the notice of this paper, workmen who have been unemployed for months, endeavored to make their small checks of $14 stretch far enough to pay old store bills. It seems so good for some of these people to receive real cash that they appear to take real pleasure in making payments on debts.

D. H. Petty, project engineer, representing the government, when in Arlington Heights Tuesday, praised the local bodies for the co-operation they are showing in the work. He said, "The Arlington Heights park board, village and school are receiving many worth while projects, benefiting both the community and the people themselves. I am at a loss to understand the attitude that is being taken by some of the neighboring towns. Perhaps it is because of a mistaken idea relative to the costs of such work. The need is so great, I can see no reason why any municipality or township should not be glad to cooperate in the plan."

Part of the landscaping plan for the central park in Sargeant Square calls for terracing from a stone wall that is to line the driveway. Forty tons of stone are now on transit for that wall which will be adorned with pilaster columns. New walks are to be laid out and large trees planted. The present parking space east of Evergreen street is going to be transformed into a real park by means of several hundred yards of dirt.

700 Trees Now in Place
The work of the park board extends to all parts of the village. Seven hundred and one elm trees had been planted before the arrival of the zero weather. A thousand more such trees are ready for planting. Arrangements have been made for the moving to the south side school grounds of four of the oldest Molin elm trees in Arlington Heights from the parkway of the old school on State road, which is to be widened.

Cement Benches Thruout the Town
Two workmen north of the Arlington Seating Co. plant are taking a lot of pride in the construction of cement end pieces for benches, each weighing about a hundred pounds. About thirty are now ready and there is material sufficient for twice that many more. It is the purpose of the park board to place these benches in the parks throughout the town. There is some talk of constructing bird houses. The park board is open to suggestions. The cost of all this work to the park district is to be very little.

New Engineer Arrives on Job
Elmer Cordel, of Chicago, arrived on the job Thursday morning as the engineer in charge of village projects. He expressed himself as being highly pleased with the progress that had already been made and he approved the plans drawn by Mr. Kennicott for the improvement of Sargeant Square.

More Projects Needed
Reports from the Chicago office are that more projects are needed in Cook county if local men are to be kept employed. While it is admitted that a few of the projects

Americanism Program Held In Cutting Hall

Although the attendance was small, an interesting program and talk were given at the American Legion Americanism meeting held in the Palatine high school's Cutting hall Wednesday night. W. G. Burns, past commander of district 6 of the American Legion and member of the Northwestern post of Chicago, was the chief speaker of the evening.

He made a plea for "old fashioned patriotism" asking everyone to work together and support the men in government office regardless of party. He spoke for recognition of the office instead of the officer, and elimination of political differences after the election is over.

Defending the Legion's stand on recognition of Soviet Russia, the speaker urged all of the American people to come out and vote on election day to offset communism.

The meeting opened with the advancing of the colors, Fred Hunnberg, and Heiman Deverman carrying the Legion colors, Mrs. J. D. Perry and Mrs. Jessie Schroeder carrying the colors of the Legion Auxiliary, Girl Scouts carrying the Woman's Relief Corps colors, Girl Scouts with their own flags and Boy Scouts with their flags.

A place on the platform was given to a representative of each of the organizations cooperating in the meeting. Seated there were Mrs. Alma Bockelman, president of the Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Emma Westrope, president of the Woman's Relief Corps, Mrs. Mabel Roberts, president of the Girl Scouts, A. R. Godknecht, president of the village board, A. H. Schmidt of the Business Men's association, A. L. Colledge of the Lions club, and Ed. Jensen of the Boy Scouts.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Sidney Bloomquist, of the Methodist Episcopal church, and the closing prayer by the Rev. John C. Voeks of St. Paul's Evangelical church. The combined high school band and orchestra under the direction of R. A. Kay, furnished music. Preceding the main speaker, Mr. Godknecht welcomed the audience and Robert Mosser presented the American's Creed.

HOWLING GALE HALTS FLAMES AT FARMHOUSE

Another Country Fire Shows Value of Coming Rural Truck

A howling northwest gale Sunday night saved the house on the old Quindell farm on Baldwin road near the Four-Silos farm, northwest of Palatine. Fire destroyed a kitchen less than 15 feet away, killing 150 laying hens, but the wind kept the flames from more than scorching the main structure just north of that destroyed.

The Palatine fire department was called, but could not save the burning building. The property is now owned by Arthur T. McIntosh.

Had the Palatine Rural Fire Protection league had its truck yet it could have been put into full action for two large cisterns are located at the farm, but the water in them stood idle since the old fire truck with which the Palatine department now answers rural calls, is not equipped to pump water.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the fire league held last Friday night eight companies entered bids offering equipment. Most offered three or four different outfits for the consideration of the board. The board will meet again tonight to discuss and "digest" some of the offers. They probably will take no action for at least two weeks.

Solicitation for new members in the league is continuing, with charter membership open to every rural resident, who has no fire protection. A 10 per cent reduction in insurance costs is scheduled for every league member as soon as the new fire apparatus is put into service.

Real Day's Work for Day's Pay
Mr. Petty states that it is admitted that there are occasional men who do not give a full day's work for their pay. These are weeded out as fast as possible.

SOLOISTS HERE FOR MESSIAH WEDNESDAY

Professional Singers Engaged for Leads in Presentation of Oratorio

Announcement was made this week that the Community Chorus has been fortunate to secure the same prominent soloists to sing the leading parts in The Messiah as sang those parts a year ago. They are Ruth Bassett, soprano; Marie Barova, alto; Eugene F. Dressler, tenor; John Macdonald, bass.

New numbers to be sung this year are ario for alto, "O Thou That Tellest Good Tidings to Zion," ario for bass, "The Trumpet Shall Sound," Chorus numbers, "His Yoke Is Easy," and "Worthy is the Lamb."

The Messiah will be presented at the Arlington Heights high school Wednesday, Dec. 20. The admission price has been cut to 25c to enable everybody who appreciates good music to attend.

Hearing The Messiah should be a part of the observance of the Christmas season for every person in Arlington Heights. Certainly, no greater enjoyment could be secured for so little money.

Farm Adviser Barrett Addresses Mayors and Suburban Officials
O. G. Barrett, farm adviser of Cook county, addressed the Suburban Area Group and Country Towns Association Wednesday evening at a banquet held at Oak Park in commemoration of the first anniversary of that organization, which was formed a year ago to safeguard the interests of the Cook county suburbs.

Mr. Barrett spoke on the relationship of the farmer to the municipalities. As farm adviser, Mr. Barrett is "up to his neck" in the AAA program and he utilized the opportunity to include in his talk a few pertinent facts about the relationship between the NRA, designed to aid industry and the AAA designed to aid the farmer.

Mayor J. D. Flentje is a member of the executive board of the Suburban organization and attended the meeting with Mr. Barrett.

Palatine Taxi Owner Injured by Own Driver
Andrew Geisen, owner of the Palatine Cab Co., is nursing two badly cut ribs received when a flash light was thrown at him last Saturday by Mr. Wessel, one of his drivers. The event took place at a road house on Rand road where Geisen had gone to recover his car, which had been driven there by Wessel, who was off duty.

Special Service in CWA Labor Checks
In order to aid the men employed in CWA work, Krause & Kehe of the Arlington Heights money exchange are offering to cash any of such checks, regardless of the amount, for the small fee of ten cents. Cashing of these checks at the local money exchange places in the hands of the holder with no delay the amount that he has earned, as easily as though there was a bank in the community.

Herrick, president; Arthur McElhose, vice president; James Manz, secretary-treasurer; Carl Svetanoff, press agent.

We will have a water work detector there and anyone wishing to identify watermarkings on his stamps may bring them along for identification.

STANGERS HELP SELVES TO ELECTRIC LIGHT POLE
There is no telling what people will steal nowadays. Strangers cut down an electric light pole in Stonegate at Arlington Heights the other day and hauled it away before the police could be notified. The Public Service Co., however, were informed of the license number of the truck.

Slashes Big Cheese

INAUGURATES CHEESE WEEK
National Cheese Week, December 11 to 16—a movement designed to aid the dairy farmer by eliminating the present 30 million pound surplus of cheese is officially launched in Arlington Heights by Village Pres. Julius Flentje. The Cheese Week plan was inaugurated by Governor Schmedeman of Wisconsin as a quick practical method of bolstering prices of dairy products which the cheese surplus has materially depressed. It calls for the consumption of an additional pound of cheese by every family in the United States during this week. Special prices on cheese is in effect at the majority of the local stores.

CWA IMPROVE BUILDINGS OF SCHOOL DIST.

Painting, Repairs and Changes in Plumbing Part of Projects

While the gross amount of money involved may not rival that of the Arlington Heights Park District or Village, there is probably no other local body who is getting more needed improvement than is school district No. 25 at Arlington Heights. Under the supervision of Henry Martens, painters are busy painting the school house, inside and out; carpenters are going to make roof repairs and plumbers will repair the sanitation equipment. Several more are expected to go to work today. The labor involved is high class and the men are being paid accordingly.

Suburban Men Guests of City News Bureau
More than 100 sports writers and coaches of the suburbs were guests of the Chicago City News bureau at a Turkey dinner Wednesday night. Among the speakers were Eddie Genger, Sam Litschultz, Rocky Wolfe, sports editor of the bureau, and others. After the dinner the guests were shown a motion picture of the Landos-Shield wrestling match.

MANY CALL ON FIFTEETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY OF MR. AND MRS. HERTZOG
In response to the invitation extended to their friends last week thru the columns of the Herald, Mr. and Mrs. Hertzog were kept busy Friday afternoon and evening greeting those who called upon them in honor of their fiftieth wedding anniversary. It was a rather novel way of celebrating such an event and it proved to be successful.

FIRE AT ARLINGTON MONDAY
Spontaneous combustion of an oil mop in a closet caused a fire at 4:30 o'clock Monday morning at the home of Albert Meyer, South Mitchell street, Arlington Heights. Cracking of the flames aroused the family, and Mr. Meyer carried his child to his mother's home nearby. Mrs. Meyer accompanying him. Then he returned to dash water at the flames and assist the fire department.

Double Car Accident at Arlington Point
Three cars figured in an accident near the Arlington Point Service Station last Saturday when a Ford coupe, driven by Bert Wilds, of Chicago, and going east, crashed into the rear of Wallace Volz car, traveling in the same direction, but turning into Stonegate. After hitting the Volz car, Wilds crashed into a car driven by Ken Wright of Elgin, traveling west. Damages to all cars included damaged fenders, bumpers and wheels.

Park District Asks Loan of Wheelbarrow
The Arlington Heights Park District is looking for some public spirited owner of a wheelbarrow, who will be willing to loan such an article to the district for use during the present CWA program. A great many improvements are being made at no cost to the district. Some of the members of that board are donating their services in administrative work and the loan of that wheelbarrow will show that the economies being practiced are appreciated.

Lights Say 'Merry Christmas'
The gay custom of decorating homes with sparkling Christmas lights grows in favor every year. Last Christmas a hundred residential streets in northern Illinois twinkled in a beautiful blaze of color. It looks as though even more holiday lights this year. It's a charm to your neighbors as well as to the stranger who passes your door.

CWA Labor at Work On 3 Skating Rinks for Mount Prospect

Labor financed with funds allotted to the state of Illinois by the federal government through the Civil Works Administration swung into action this week in carrying out plans for three ice skating rinks in Mount Prospect. Final details of the program were discussed Monday evening in a conference of a committee representing the Improvement Association, originators of the skating rink plan, and H. F. Meyn, president of the Village board, who obtained approval of an application for handling the project through the Civil Works Administration.

The subject of shelter and lights for illuminating the rinks at night has not as yet been treated by the Improvement Association committee although accommodations of this character will probably not be obtainable until the expense is justified by the demand. Dealers in ice skates and those having equipment for sharpening skates are preparing to meet a brisk demand for supplies and service.

Training Certificates Awarded Scout Leaders For Completing Course

At an enthusiastic gathering of Scout leaders and ladies in the Des Plaines Congregational church Wednesday evening, many of the men who have attended the Fall University of Scouting conducted by the leadership training committee of the Northwest Suburban council during the past six weeks, received their National Training certificates for satisfactory completion of the work. Advanced certificates were also presented to some of the members of the staff of the recent courses and standard certificates were given for the completion of the Standard work offered by the leaders round table.

This marks the completion of the 1933 leadership training. During the year 16 courses have been offered to local Scout leaders; a total of 386 men registered for these courses and 179 of them completed the work. ## PWA BRANCH OK'S WATER TANK LOAN

Hearing Held on Mt. Prospect Surface Storage Project

The construction and installation of Mount Prospect's proposed new water reservoir adapted to provide a surface storage capacity of 250,000 gallons, took another step toward realization last week when the Illinois Advisory committee of the Public Works Administration held a hearing at the Federal building in Chicago, and approved the application for funds. The application has since been transmitted to Governor Henry Horner at Springfield for approval preparatory to its delivery to the proper officials in Washington. It is felt that final approval will be obtained in a relatively short time.

Messrs. Ralph Gould, D. W. Budlong, A. L. Roderick and Hugo Thal represented the interests of the village at the hearing.

Arlington Heights Couple Clash With Palatine Cop; Fined

Two Arlington Heights couples in attendance at a recent dance at Palatine visited their cars to emigrate wine, once too often the other Saturday night and as a result one car overturned and one young man was placed under arrest for abusive language to Officer Kable.

It all started when the two couples made a lot of noise and were asked by the officer to be quiet. After some talk, the officer ordered both couples to leave Palatine. One of them did so. As the other drove away, he gave vent to his feelings with a string of profanity. He eluded the officer who followed in a taxi, driving up Bothwell street, overturning his car on the Knave property. A half hour later, both couples were back and on being located by the officer, the one man was taken to the lockup, where he remained until a prominent newspaper man of Stonegate interceded and got him released on bonds.

The trial was held last Thursday when a reporter for a Chicago daily was on hand to see that the friend of the newspaperman man received a square deal. With evidence all one way, Judge Steinbrink could do nothing less than to impose a fine of $10 and costs, part of which was paid by the reporter. Local police are still watching for a newspaper "expose" which was threatened by the reporter.

DuPage Authorities Show How Bandits Should be Handled

That DuPage county knows how to deal with bandits and thugs was very convincingly demonstrated when Otto Meir was sentenced from one year to life at Joliet Tuesday morning at Wheaton. Meir along with four others, held up Whitall tavern on York road November 29 and after terrorizing the patrons in the place and robbing them of considerable money were given a barrage of bullets from the guns of a guard concealed in a lookout. Two of the quintet were mowed down, but were picked up by their comrades who got away. However, four of the group were apprehended one dead, one wounded—and a fifth is still missing.

Along with Meir, Nickerson and Titus were brought to DuPage county last week and the grand jury brought in indictments against all of them Monday before Judge Fulton.

DuPage county authorities are to be congratulated for the speedy manner in which they have brought these dangerous men to a reckoning.

Double Car Accident At Arlington Point

Three cars figured in an accident near the Arlington Point Service Station last Saturday when a Ford coupe, driven by Bert Wilds, of Chicago, and going east, crashed into the rear of Wallace Volz car, traveling in the same direction, but turning into Stonegate. After hitting the Volz car, Wilds crashed into a car driven by Ken Wright of Elgin, traveling west. Damages to all cars included damaged fenders, bumpers and wheels.

Supreme Court OK's Conviction Of Ralph L. Peck

Ralph L. Peck, former president of the First National Bank of Palatine, must serve a sentence of 18 months in federal prison and pay a fine of $2,000 as a result of the United States Supreme court's action last Monday in refusing to review the case. Peck was convicted on charges of embezzlement in the Chicago Federal district court in March, 1932, and sentenced by Judge John P. Barnes.

Evidence at the trial showed that Peck collected interest and principal on loans made by the bank he headed and converted the money to his own uses. His defense was that the bank owed him the sums he took.

In appealing the case he charged that he had put much of his own funds into the bank in order to help it maintain its required daily balances and reserves, against which the bank frequently charged its excess mortgages to be repurchased as conditions warranted.

He claimed that his indictment grew out of such a transaction, and that he should have been allowed to put in evidence to show the situation. He also attacked the validity of the indictment against him.

Mr. Peck is a graduate of the University of Chicago, and has for many years a practicing attorney in the city. He was for a long time Palatine village attorney, and was associated with the First National bank of Palatine from its founding until a few months before it was closed by the national bank examiner in January, 1932.

NEW SAFETY DEVICE FOR FIRE ALARM

By Connecting Fire Dept. Phone, Operator Can Sound Siren

Added protection against the hazard of fire is assured to residents of Mount Prospect through the proposed installation of a new safety device which has received the favorable consideration of the local fire department officials and the members of the village board. The new device embraces a system whereby the telephone operator, upon getting a "fire call," simply plugs in a connection to the fire department phone, as has been done in the past, and instantly the phone box at the fire department rings. This operation causes a supply of current to close a contact which in turn closes the control switch to start the siren. It is pointed out that this hook-up does not require a change in the phone. Obviously, when the siren starts, the first fireman to reach the phone just lifts the receiver of a phone and asks the operator for the location of the fire.

Pre-Christmas Games Hardest on Schedule For Arlington's Team

Arlington's Cardinals face three of their hardest games between now and Christmas. This Friday Arlington goes to Warren. Warren's early season strength indicates a superior team. Their ability to trim Antioch last Friday on Antioch's floor by such a large margin stamps them as one of the conference favorites.

On Friday, Dec. 22, Palatine comes to Arlington for the only remaining home game before the holidays. Nothing need be said in order to induce the fans from the two towns to take in this game. Palatine's team looks like the class of the conference while Arlington has high hopes for a winner this year.

Then on Saturday night, Dec. 23, the Cardinals journey to Bensenville. Arlington suffered three trimmings at the hands of Bensenville last year. Bensenville has a veteran team that has been going great guns. Arlington will be fortunate to win any of the three.

Wheeling to Have a Community Christmas

The village of Wheeling intends to have a real Community Christmas program this year, thru the cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce and the public school. The program will be in charge of the school and the community tree, with Santa and his pack will be sponsored by the business organization. The event will be held Friday evening, Dec. 22.

Arlington Woman Hit By Auto, Breaks Arm

Mrs. Lewis, of So. Mitchell street, Arlington Heights, was walking across Evergreen street at Gieske's store Monday evening when she was hit by a car driven by Fredrick Lauterburg. Her left arm was broken and she sustained many bruises, necessitating her removal to the Masonic hospital.

TRAIN STRIKES AUTO, KILLING W. C. BICKNASE

Brockway Street Crossing In Palatine, Scene of Fatal Accident

William C. Bicknase, 67, of Lake Zurich was killed at the Brockway street crossing of the Chicago and North Western railroad in Palatine at 2:45 o'clock Monday afternoon when struck by a local passenger train. Mr. Bicknase drove eastward along the drive through the yard and turned left on Brockway street, crossing two tracks and driving directly into the path of the Chicago-bound train, already slowing for the station stop.

According to testimony given at the inquest held Tuesday morning in the Daniels funeral home, the signal lights and bell at this crossing were functioning properly at the time of the accident. The left side of the locomotive hit the auto behind its center and threw it 55 feet northeast into the depot park.

Mr. Bicknase was thrown from the car and fell 20 feet from it. He suffered fractures of the skull and spine, chest hemorrhage, chest and other injuries, and died while being taken to the Community hospital. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental death, finding no one at fault and making no recommendations as to changes in signals at this crossing.

Engineer Testifies
Edward F. Fitzgerald, 3821 Gladys avenue, Chicago, engineer of the train, said that he first saw the auto when it "loomed like a wall" on the track. He already had applied the air brakes for the station stop, and yanked his whistle. On questioning of Emil Selber, deputy coroner conducting the inquest, he stated that a village ordinance prohibits whistle blowing within the village limits except for emergencies, and the last previous blast was at the village limits after the accident he backed his train to test the signals and found them working properly.

Chief witness at the inquest was Earl Preble, 6216 Champaign avenue, Chicago, driver of a pie truck, who had heeded the warning signals and was stopping on the north side of the track waiting for the train to pass when the accident occurred. He told of seeing the auto on the other side of the track and then the crash.

The accident occurred just a block from where Mr. Bicknase's brother and nephew, Henry P. Bicknase, 63, and Earl Bicknase, 34, were killed when struck by a train January 18. That accident occurred when the elder man drove his auto with his son as passenger, past the end of a standing local train and into the path of a speeding through train. He also ignored the warning signals.

Members of the coroner's jury at the inquest were William G. Bauman, Fred J. Buenzo, Frank Hanman, John H. Wenzel, Andrew Geisen, and Charles Henry.

Funeral is Today
Funeral services are being held in the Daniels funeral chapel at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The Rev. John C. Voeks of the St. Paul's Evangelical church will officiate. Burial will be in Hillside cemetery. The Lake Zurich Masonic lodge will be in charge of the services.

Mr. Bicknase was born in Palatine. For the past 30 years he operated a summer resort at Lake Zurich. He was divorced from his wife, Carrie Seip Bicknase. He was a charter member of the Lake Zurich Masonic lodge.

Mr. Bicknase leaves three children, Mrs. Myrtle Dean of Madison, Wis.; Orville Bicknase of Chicago, and Mrs. Pearl Oselein of Hebron; three grandchildren; and four sisters, Mrs. Glen Gallup, Mrs. Albert Behling, and Miss Lena Bicknase of Palatine, and Mrs. Minnie Miller of Chicago.

Drainage Commissioners Thank Homer J. Byrd For Work on Area Roads

A message of thanks to County Commissioner Homer J. Byrd, chairman of the county board's roads and bridges committee, has been voiced by the commissioners of the Wheeling Drainage district, Henry Grant, John Welinske, and A. G. Rockenbach.

Thanking Mr. Byrd for the placing of tile in the ditches at the junction of Hinz and Wolf roads, and also along Palatine road east of the Soo Line tracks, the commissioners state that the work at the intersection has saved the roads, which would have washed out in spring.

"The people along these roads have been in water for many years," says the statement of the commissioners, "and this will be done away with now. This water will now drain off and into the drainage ditch."

Cooperating with President Roosevelt, the drainage commissioners have had 20 CWA men from Wheeling township at work. There are still many more unemployed in the township they say, and ask the aid of the commissioners and supervisors of the township in helping find work for more local men.

Woman's Club Notes

The Women's club met in their usual place Wednesday, December 6, to listen to an address on "Law Observance" given by Mrs. F. E. Thornton of the 7th District.

The usual preliminary exercises, reports of committees, and a fine report of the Red Cross caravans by the club, by the president, Mrs. Heller. The sum gathered in this town amounted to $190.

The club chorus directed by Mrs. Mitzlaff, gave two numbers, Mrs. Manz accompanying. Mrs. Briggs gave a report at request of the president, of their visit to the Leyden club. Mrs. Briggs also added a detailed account of her second visit to Leyden. The organization and usual delays and differences as to object of the club, its name and so forth.

Mrs. B. A. Noyes, chairman of the Citizens committee covering Law Observance, introduced Mrs. Thornton, the speaker of the afternoon, who certainly impressed her audience of her sincerity, and deep interest in her subject; also of her perplexity and doubt in her ability to treat the subject as she had viewed. After recent developments and painful lack of law observance. We appreciated her difficulty when she referred to a number of headlines in the morning's papers, with their exalting joy in, dare we say, lawless revelry. She also convinced us of her thorough and intelligent understanding of her subject and what law observance should mean. Altogether her address was heartily received, we only wished her time had not been so brief.

In closing the chorus gave another number. The next meeting of the club will be December 20. "A Story of Christmas" in picture and song, directed by the Art committee and the club chorus.

Honors Matron

The officers of Arlington Heights chapter honored the worthy matron, Georgiana Pankonin and the worthy patron, Charles Pankonin, at a dinner party at Green Lawn on Belmont avenue and River road on Saturday, Dec. 9.

This party, for the presiding officers, is an annual event and is one that is always remembered by each corps of officers as the grand finale of the past year.

The table decorations added greatly to the holiday spirit. The center piece was a pretty cellophane Christmas tree; the nut cups were like poinsettias and the predominating colors were red and green. A delicious dinner was served, during which there were speeches by a number of the officers. George Volz acted as toastmaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Pankonin, at this time, were presented a beautiful mantel chime clock. This was a gift from their officers and it will be a lasting reminder of a most successful year for the chapter.

If we should start in naming all the children who are or who have been having chicken pox, there would be quite a list. Helen and Betty Davis and Jackie Monroe are a few, who will be through with that and ready to welcome Santa.

Mrs. Herman F. Lewis, So. Mitchell, suffered a broken arm, broken ribs and bad bruises when struck by a car Monday evening as she was returning home from work. She was taken to the Masonic hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kolath were Sunday callers at the Hoyts. Did you hear the fire alarm Monday morning? The call was to the Meyer home on South Mitchell, where the blaze was soon extinguished.

Mrs. Albert Cavanaugh was pleasantly surprised, Monday afternoon by Mrs. Kelo and Mrs. Belle, who reminded her of another birthday arrival.

Paul Fellingham will be here this week-end for the Christmas holiday vacation. Michigan University gives a three weeks vacation.

J. F. Monroe has been in Kansas the past week on business.

Mrs. Vedder, So. State road, was taken into the hospital Monday to be operated upon for appendicitis.

Masonic Club

Elects Officers

The Mt. Prospect Masonic club met for the second time on Friday, December 8th, and at this meeting by-laws were adopted and officers for the year 1934 elected.

Worshipful Brother Charles Edwards was elected president; G. A. Andresen, vice president; R. E. Gould, treasurer; and L. G. Johnson, secretary.

In accordance with the method of administration there were appointed to the Board of Control three additional members, Francis Spears, Edwin Baskin and Jack Gehringer. Brother Gehringer will also act as Tyler.

The auditing committee was also appointed to consist of Brothers A. V. Carlson and C. G. Gallagher. A resolution to keep the charter open until the stated meeting in April was adopted, and all masons residing in the village at the present time are cordially invited to become members of the club, before the charter is closed.

The meeting was held at the offices of Dr. Buck and was attended by about thirty masons who enjoyed a social hour and refreshments after the meeting.

The next meeting of the club will be held on the second Friday in January and all masons are urged to attend.

American Legion Notes

At our last regular meeting Tuesday night, December 12, many important things were discussed and achieved. Commander Browne and Adjutant Parker gave very interesting reports of the Commander's and Adjutant's convention which they attended at Bloomington, Ill., last Saturday and Sunday. Especially interesting and enlightening were the remarks about National Commander Hayes' speech and his famous 4-point program. Comrade Kerschke demonstrated what a fellow can do when he puts his heart and soul in his work. As chairman of the Boy Scouts committee, he gave a very good report of the progress and success of Troop 5, which our Post is sponsoring. Over 25 boys are now active members.

This is only one of the many community movements the Post is sponsoring—and one of the best. Comrade Engelking was heaped with many honors and responsibilities. He was appointed to represent the Post on the town Relief committee. Chairman of the Post's Unemployment committee and chairman of the Drum and Bugle Corps reorganization committee. This is almost too much work and responsibility for any one man, but Phil is the man that can handle it. Any legionnaire, or any ex-service man not a member of the Legion, who is unemployed, should get in touch with Phil immediately and he will be glad to do all he can to get you a job with the CWA (and he can do a lot for you.)

Our next dance was discussed briefly and will be held either in January or February—so start thinking about it.

A letter from Mrs. V. Pechia of the Auxiliary, was read inviting all members to a box or basket social at the Legion House next Sunday night, Dec. 17. The letter was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by all. Let us turn out and help make the affair a financial, as well as a social success. After the meeting "unusual" refreshments were served consisting of a bowl of chili and coffee.

Mrs. Jones, wife of Comrade Clyde Jones, made and helped serve the chili. And was it good? Everyone enjoyed it immensely except Comrade Jorgensen who said it was too hot for him. He took one spoonful and had to run to the window to cool off or else he would have caught on fire. But I guess George has never been in the Southwest where they eat chili when it is 110 in the shade and there is no shade.

This was our last regular meeting for the year 1933. Our next meeting will be the second Tuesday in 1934, about which every one will be duly notified. Let us start the New Year right by attending all meetings and being on time—that is 8 o'clock. This is Station MGP No. 208 signing off.

Mr. and Mrs. Antone Felkner announce the arrival of a son, born December 12. Their home is on South Dunton avenue.

The Auxiliary of the Boy Scouts met with Mrs. Charles Siefel at Schiller Park. This was a Christmas party; also it developed into a double celebration, as it was revealed after the date was set, that it was the birthday of one of their most helpful and loyal members, Mrs. A. T. Chidley. You may be sure this friendly company did the celebration act in the jolliest form and had a dandy good time with Mrs. Siefel.

A CORRECTION

In last week's issue the advertisement for the Dixie Hayshakers was in error, stating a dance was to be held Wednesday, Dec. 13, at Deltz's Stables, Ivanhoe. There will be a dance Wednesday, Dec. 20, and every other Wednesday night, thereafter. Music will be furnished by the Dixie Hayshakers. Everybody is welcome. Read advertisement in this paper.

Pupils Warned Against Icy Steps and Streets

"Icy Streets and Steps Are Dangerous," points out the December safety poster just issued by the Chicago Motor Club to approximately 39,000 schoolrooms in Illinois and Indiana.

In a letter to teachers, which accompanied the poster, the club urged that the children be reminded that when the streets are slippery, from ice or snow, the hazard involved in crossing them is much greater than when the pavement is dry.

"Christus," Passion Play Coming to Des Plaines

When Alfred Stury's "Christus," a passion play with selections from George Handel's "The Messiah" will be presented on the stage of the Des Plaines theatre on December 17, 18 and 19, the audience will witness a dramatization of the world's most influencing force interpreted by four of the most brilliant personalities of the world of music and drama, together with outstanding soloists and a cast of sixty inspired actors and singers. Marie Mayer, the star of the dramatic cast, is famous throughout Europe for her startlingly sympathetic interpretation of the role of Mary Magdalene in the Oberammergau Passion Play.

In this presentation the music of the soloists, choruses and instruments have been so arranged, the dramatic action and dialogue so interpolated, the services of modern staging and lighting so employed as to present the story of Christ and His followers in dramatic sequence and to develop to its ultimate beauty and strength the spiritual message.

Carlson and Sterling Tydols took Krause Butchers for three games. Carlson series of 209, 265, 235, total of 709 made it tough competition. Carlson's 709 series leads the league. Last high was 708 made by Emil Hoggay. Put on some pressure Turf.

Blatz Old Heidelberg took the Vail Tavern Hotshots League leaders for two. Vail Tavern dropped 6 of the last nine games. Not so good for league leaders.

ELECTRICITY IS THRIFTY ITEM

As you cast up your accounts for 1933, with an eye on holiday shopping and with some regard for the budget for the New Year, you probably are reminded that living costs are again rising.

But the cost of electricity, so important to your household, is unchanged. In good times or bad, over a score of years, the trend of electric rates has been downward. But living costs have rocketed upward, slid down, and are now rising again. So that now your general cost of living is 28% higher than pre-war level, while your electricity costs you 47.33% LESS than it did in 1911.

With living costs still mounting, the price of electricity remains at the same old level, still the most reasonable item in your household budget.

WERE YOU RAISED ON A FARM?

How many times have you longed for some of that real genuine farm cured ham and bacon that dad used to smoke in the old smoke house years ago when you were a youngster back home on the farm.
You keep on looking and looking, trying to find hams and bacon with that taste and flavor that you enjoyed so well, but you never seem to find any.

Somehow or other they don't taste the same. That's only because they are not real farm cured. If you long for some of those old fashioned real farm house meals of years ago, then fill up your pantry for the winter with these Real Farm Cured Hams and
"Bacon" that are so different because they are cured in a secret farm formula of sugar and molasses and actually smoked over a hickory wood fire for 3 days and 3 nights and not painted a smoke color with a brush as many are.

MOVIE WINDUPS WIN TWO GAMES FOR LEYDEN

Shots in Last Minute of Play
Defeat Bensenville,
Argo

Leyden had an unusual week-end in basketball when they won games from Bensenville and Argo by sensational last minute baskets in both instances. In the Friday game with Bensenville, Kossack shot a basket in the final minute to break a tie and give Leyden a 21 to 19 victory. Saturday night at Argo the Leyden quintet trailed 22 to 21 with less than 10 seconds to play, but Kahle looped in a goal from the side as the gun went off to win the contest 23 to 22. Leyden lights easily defeated both Bensenville and Argo.

The Leyden lightweights appear to have their eyes on the title as they romped over Bensenville 38 to 12 Friday and then defeated Argo 22 to 15 in a nonconference tilt Saturday.

MORE ABOUT MAC SAYS

closing seconds of play. We imagine Watson was ready for a rest after sitting through such thrills as his boys played against Bensenville and Argo. Watson has not a single regular from his title winning outfit of last year, but seems to have molded together another winning combination.

Duddles Leads the Wildcats
Duddles, diminutive forward and Libertyville's only letterman, scored 10 of his team's 16 points last Friday against Barrington. The same speed and change of pace which made him the outstanding half back of the conference seems to be carrying over to the cage sport.

Cox Makes Prediction
Coach Cox of Antioch saw his green team go down to a onesided defeat last Friday at the hands of Warren, but says he has good undeveloped material which will likely come into its own after the holidays and give Warren a real battle in the return encounter. Warren is fast and scrappy but lacks height. Their large score was due not only to their own ability but to the erratic passing and shooting of the Antioch boys.

Koske Becomes a Forward
Koske, veteran Bensenville guard, has been shifted to forward this season. The move appears to have been a wise one on the part of Coach Johnson as the big fellow scored four field goals to lead the scoring at Leyden.

Tuley Defeats Arlington
We saw Tuley take a double bill from Arlington Tuesday after school, but the Heights boys gave the Chicago teams a real run for their money. Heights tied the score in the heavyweight encounter late in the last period, but the loss of Forzen on fouls weakened the Cardinal defense and Tuley gained the lead. The final score was 26 to 24. We thought Steve Szasz played a mighty good game at guard. The referee, Dave Farber, turned in the best piece of officiating we have seen in a long time.

Coaches Entertained
The coaches of the conference were entertained at a banquet at the Chicago Stadium Wednesday evening sponsored by the City News bureau. Complimentary tickets were furnished to the wrestling show held that evening at the Stadium. The coaches have cooperated well with Mr. Kincaid who sends the scores to the City News bureau after all the games.

Press Plan Homecoming
Palatine will celebrate their annual Homecoming a week from Saturday evening with the Leyden games and a dance. A homecoming queen elected by the high school students will be crowned as one event on the evening's program. Leyden is a great rival of Palatine and will bring another strong team to the Pirate court this year.

William Kreft, Jr., had a birthday anniversary Saturday and in honor of the occasion the family entertained relatives and friends at a party Dec. 8. A delightful evening was enjoyed.

Mrs. Oren Jaacks entertained her "500" club Thursday evening.

Mrs. Fred Wichman was hostess to a crowd of her friends from Niles Center Saturday evening. Cards and refreshments were enjoyed.

St. Matthews Ladies Aid thanked their many friends who attended the bazaar party at the school hall December 8. Besides the numerous bazaar prizes, Mrs. Herman Koelper won the drawing prize, a set of dishes and Miss Marjorie Engel, the door prize, a bag of flour.

Members of Maine local Number 3, of the Truck Gardeners' association, are asked to make note of the date of their annual local meeting which will be held at St. Matthew's school hall Monday afternoon, December 26. Election of officers and local members of the board will be in order and discussions on the important problems of the past year will be heard.

The Northwest Suburban Bowling League, delighted with the success of their recently sponsored dance, are planning to run another affair. This one will be a New Year's Eve frolic to be held at Mueller's hall, Morton Grove, to which everybody is invited and welcome. Al Ahrens's synopators will furnish the music.

St. Matthew's Lutheran choir at their regular monthly business meeting, Dec. 5, held their annual election of officers. William Frank is the new head of the board, having been elected to the office of president. The remaining staff officers were reelected as follows: Vice president, Walter Busse; secretary, Alma Finnen; treasurer, Raymond Steil; librarian, Arthur Schuknecht; Mr. Busse, of course, is the efficient leader and director.

Inspired by the success of the three-act play put on by the choir last year, it was again decided that another play would be presented early in February. As soon as any definite data is obtainable, we will pass the information along to you. New members in the choir are always welcome, they are particularly anxious to increase their membership at this time and so, young folks of St. Matthews, come up and join the glad band of welcome will be extended. Regular meeting nights are every Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ahrens entertained a large crowd of relatives and friends at a celebration in honor of their fifteenth wedding anniversary Saturday, Dec. 9. The guests arrived early in the evening and were treated to a delicious hot supper, after which enjoyment was found at cards, bazaar and dancing to top off the celebration. Mr. and Mrs. Ahrens received many lovely gifts in honor of the occasion, among which were a beautiful dinner set. The party lasted until the early hours of the morning, but everyone present had a most enjoyable time and united in wishing their congenial host and hostess many more years of continued matrimonial bliss, and happiness.

And here's some good news for the members of the Cook County Farmer's Mutual Insurance company. At a special meeting held last Saturday, it was decided that the company is able at this time to pay a dividend to all members in good standing for the year 1933. This dividend which will again be issued in the form of credit slips which may be applied on the renewal of insurance for 1934, will be placed in the mail very soon now and will reach the members in plenty of time to be used for renewing their policies which expire on December 31.

Bermuda Has No Snakes
The only country in the world which can truthfully assert that it has no snakes is Bermuda. They are unknown there. Bermudian children think of a snake as an extinct monster that lived in the Garden of Eden. If they were to be shown an American rattlesnake they would probably try to make a pet of it. But lacking as she is in snakes, Bermuda has an abundance of birds and flowers. More than 186 species of birds have been recorded in Bermuda.

OBSERVER'S NOTES

Here we see the old order change, in great upheavals, passing strange. A wondrous history making change. With errors writ on every page. We fear if stammers keep on yet, They'll quite deplete the alphabet. Our modern classic P. D. Q. In a new use they bring to view, Thus it has been interpreted, Roosevelt in his pronouncement said, Swinging his old historic stick, "Ye foreign debtors Pay Down Quick!" (P. D. Q.)

This opening paragraph could have been far more "telling" had one dared to tell the truth and shame, a whole lot of public officials. Let that pass, in this age of yes, yes responses and silent consenters; of added unused brains, what dare we say?

If you really desire to say something original, mention that this is a really worthwhile town, that we have enjoyed a wonderful season; that only a few people have colds; and that there may be better countries than ours, but many here preferred to come here to live.

One of the pleasant features of a family gathering that came to one of our friends Thanksgiving, was told to us by Mrs. B. A. Noyes. The week before they had received word from their daughter, Miss Dorothy Noyes, who teaches in Michigan. Her letter told that it would be impossible for her to leave her classes to come home Thanksgiving.

Thursday with a heavy disappointment the Noyes went to Le Grange to spend the day with the Austins, as they entered the hall there was Miss Dorothy coming down the stairs to greet them. After her letter was sent to her parents, she had the good fortune to find a way to come. This meant her first Thanksgiving with her family for five years. Can you imagine the joy in their home and in their hearts Thanksgiving day?

It is these little tales of happy home experiences that cheer us on our way. We thank God that we can be glad in other's gladness, even when we feel the weight of loneliness, because of dear ones who no longer share our Thanksgiving. "We know they are not far away."

Can you imagine any person in Arlington Heights going to Chicago to trade, after all the nice letters our merchants have sent out? Great big printed news sheets with fine pictured illustrations of what they have to offer in trade. Never before have we seen such a fine display in advertising. Surely our tradesmen have grown wise, and know it pays to advertise.

Children and the movies, wonder how many of our parents know the crime and risk influences spread before young children in the movies? We hear them playing these harmful plays on the street.

There is much being written and said on movements for better films. We notice that "Little Women" is now on in the city theaters. The story unchanged and untainted, just as Miss Alcott wrote it so many years ago, wish all our home town children might see those pictures.

For years, and years, we used to write and scold and fuss, for some place in Arlington Heights where young people might go to find a bit of amusement. Now we have a theater, and we are told the best pictures are there put on; yet many prefer to spend gas or carfare to go to the city. Why?

So Marie Dressler is to come as "Tug Boat Annie," first of next week. Chicago people tell us the films or pictures are fine. Wonder if it would be dangerous for one of my impressionable age to go? At any rate if nothing unforeseen happens, believe it's worth the risk. Mind you, if I go, it will be to our own town theater, in Arlington.

We hear so much about new books just out, "best sellers" and with the sage of old we are ready to exclaim, "of making books there is no end." After reading the best of them, one is constrained to cry with Emerson, "And when I am stretched beneath the pines, Where the evening star so Holy shines, I laugh at the lore and pride of man; At the sophist's schools and the learned clan; For what are they all in their high conceit When man in the bush with God may meet?"

Solomon, greatest of sages advised his son "get wisdom, and with all thy getting, get understanding." Many books read or crammed into the mind, if not understood, are like eating or cramming our stomachs with unassimilated food. Reading not well assimilated, well understood, is of but little use to build into knowledge.

Speaking of contests, wouldn't it be a fine thing for the beauty and health of our town to prepare for a weed destroying contest? Offer a prize for the greatest number of Canada thistles any one person has destroyed. Since these foreign pests can only be eradicated by destroying the roots, it might be well for those claiming the prize to produce the roots and have them counted.

Another health menace claiming hay fever victims by the score is the common ragweed. We saw a regular army of this menace in full seed, growing on the parkway among the finest residences of our town. This weed has a rather pretty, almost fernlike leaf, and yet its pollen causes a terrible disease to those who have fever subjects who breathe it.

This season may not be a proper time to stage a weed destroying contest, yet roots can even now be eradicated and urge for the contest be initiated, saying nothing of the menace to health, those who care for the appearance of our town, and their homes should see to it that all noxious weeds were destroyed.

It would be a fine move to offer or initiate a contest for the uprooting and eradicating all noxious weeds. Our Boy Scouts ever alert and ready for helpful home town betterment could be put in the lead. They should be taught by their teachers to know really how to distinguish what is really a weed, enlist as leader those who do know and then lead on in a weed destroying contest.

Heaven help us to destroy the weeds of greed and selfishness that seem at this time to be possessing the people, not only of our land. Many in our time possess untold millions, while others starving and unclothed, seeking honest work. "The earth is mine" saith the Lord the silver and the gold, and all its hidden treasures are mine. Then why do His children greedily withhold while their brothers starve?

Harpers Ferry Harpers Ferry is famous for its natural beauty and for its importance in historical events. Here three states meet and the Shenandoah and Potomac rivers join. John Brown's raid on the United States arsenal in 1857 was in this town and it was in a state of almost constant siege during the Civil war.

Growth of Lockjaw Germ Injuries from explosives favor development of lockjaw, because the germ grows only in the absence of air, and injuries from explosives are apt to form lacerated wounds with deep airless pockets.

ELK GROVE SCHOOL

A large crowd attended the bunco party and dance given here the week before Thanksgiving. The Achievement club gave away two turkeys at this party. Irene Schoo sold 60 tickets and received first prize in this contest. Eleanor Nelson and Alvira Mueller ranked second and third.

School was dismissed last Thursday and Friday for the Thanksgiving vacation. Everyone reported a pleasant vacation.

A weiner roast was enjoyed by the school Nov. 28.

Some trees have been set out as the first step in carrying out Mr. Prost's plan to beautify the school grounds.

The upper grades are working on their essays entitled, "A Hike Through Cook County Forest Preserves." All are hoping to win one of the prizes offered by Mr. Emmet Wheelan.

Work has been started on the Christmas program. The play which is to be given is "Red and the Christmas Whoppers."

Doris and Glenn Wetern have moved from our district and are now attending Orchard Place school.

Last month Evelyn Jarnecke and Florence Wolters made perfect spelling records. During last month six boys and five girls were neither tardy or absent. They are Irene Schoo, Evelyn Jarnecke, Gladys Landmeier, Mildred Schoo, Emma Ehlers, Edward Mollenkamp, Willard Schoo, Leroy Landmeier, John Petersen, Elmer Wolters, and Robert Lagerhausen.

Melons Once Grew Wild Muskmelons, watermelons and cucumbers first grew wild. All three of these plants are probably natives of Africa and possibly also of neighboring portions of western Asia. They have been known to native peoples since prehistoric times.

WHEELING

About 175 people attended the comedy "Lookin' Lovely" which was presented at Childerley Community Center last Wednesday evening. The play afforded many laughs for the audience and was well received. The young people were well suited to their parts and did them justice, even though it was the first experience for the majority of them. Many comments from the audience expressed the desire for future entertainments of this sort. We hope the young folks will feel encouraged to continue this type of activity in the near future.

A Yuletide dance will be given at Childerley Community Center on Wednesday evening, Dec. 27. Music will be furnished by Mel Borchardt's orchestra. Admission will be 25c a person. An interesting program for the evening is being planned by the committee. Mr. Robert Scott, having given
